

Gurley's Clients Meet; Discussion Is Secret

Attorney for Customer of Missing Man Declares the Broker's Sons Are Doing Everything Possible to Straighten Out Affairs.

There was a star-chamber meeting of the clients of William B. Gurley, a former broker in Washington, who has been missing for something over a month, at the Lawrence Building yesterday afternoon. The proceedings of the meeting were shrouded with the same secrecy that has marked the missing man's movements since he left Nantucket, Mass., for Washington.

Two of Mr. Gurley's sons, Shields, the eldest, and Melville, who is a senior at Yale—and five women attended the meeting. Four of the women are Government clerks, whose stock market transactions, it is said, were conducted by Mr. Gurley. Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey appeared as attorney for one of her clients.

No statement as to Mr. Gurley's whereabouts was made at the meeting, although the latest developments in the case seem to indicate that he is alive, and the theory that he met with an accident or foul play has been abandoned. It has been ascertained that Mr. Gurley went West from Washington, though his present whereabouts is unknown.

It was reported in financial circles yesterday morning that several securities, supposed to have been in Mr. Gurley's possession when he disappeared, had been located by his sons. This was denied after the meeting yesterday, by Melville Gurley, who said that absolutely no light had been thrown on this affair.

It was learned this afternoon that all the securities supposed to be in Washington had been located. It cannot be determined now how many, if any, of them have been hypothecated. Mrs. Mussey declined to give the name of her client, who had been trading through Mr. Gurley's firm, but stated that she was not disposed to press the matter, as she believed Mr. Gurley's sons were doing everything possible to straighten out their father's business affairs, and that a satisfactory settlement would be made.

It has been learned definitely that Mr. Gurley was in Boston on the day he sent a paper to his wife in Nantucket. When he left Nantucket he took with him a trunk marked on the end, in large type, "W. B. Gurley." It is said that when he reached Boston he sold this trunk and purchased a new one, giving explicit instructions that no letter be put on it.

Melville Gurley said yesterday that he probably would leave Washington Wednesday, and the effort to locate his father would still be continued until something definite is discovered.

So far as the investigation into Mr. Gurley's affairs has proceeded, nothing has been found to indicate that his clients are not protected. There are still several transactions to be gone over, however. One of Mr. Gurley's sons went today to New York to locate some securities believed to be there.

ITALY'S KING HONORED BY PENN UNIVERSITY

Emmanuel Will Receive Degree of LL. D.—Edward VII Recognized in Similar Manner.

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—King Victor Emmanuel, the sovereign of Italy, yesterday announced his intention of accepting an honorary degree from the University of Pennsylvania. If this degree is granted at the commencement next Wednesday, as in all probability it will, the King of Italy will be the second foreign potentate to receive a degree from the university within the present academic year. Edward VII was similarly honored at the university day exercises on last Washington's Birthday.

The degree which is to be conferred on the Italian ruler is that of doctor of laws. While none of the university officials wished to discuss the matter until King Victor Emmanuel's acceptance had been received, it is thought that the degree will be taken on behalf of his sovereign next Wednesday.

DEVELOPMENTS AT PINEHURST

The New and Popular Suburb of Atlantic City

ELEVEN MINUTES FROM THE BOARD WALK ON THE MAIN LINE OF THE PENNSYLVANIA R. R.

Have Greatly Increased Its Real Estate Values Within the Past Few Months

Look at the map
--see how near
Pinehurst is to Atlantic City.

Expansion of Atlantic City

The rapid growth of Atlantic City has had few parallels in the real estate history of this country.

Within a few years a barren island has been transformed into a cosmopolitan city, with an average population of 250,000. Real estate values have increased 800 per cent in 12 years, now aggregating $92,000,000.

This rapid growth has made many rich. Here are a few of the many instances—

A lot 50x100 ft. that cost $700 was sold recently for $50,000.

A property that cost $6,000 five years ago was sold recently for $150,000.

A property taken in exchange for a debt of $800 is now worth at least half a million.

A quarter of a square originally traded for a cow worth $15 is now selling at $125 per front foot.

But Atlantic City has outgrown the boundaries of the island on which it stands (barely 3/4 of a mile wide) and is expanding steadily on the mainland opposite, along the line of the railroad and the trolleys.

Trolleys Must Pass Through Pinehurst

The tract being developed by this Company commands the principal approach to Atlantic City, and occupies the best building land anywhere within reasonable distance of the resort. It is worthy of careful thought that nearly one-half of Pinehurst has been sold to Atlantic City residents.

Situated on high upland, eighty feet above Atlantic City, Pinehurst offers advantages possessed by few other points near the shore. It is well wooded with pine and oak that is left standing on the properties for residential purposes. The land is being sold to those who will erect handsome dwellings, with ample grounds.

The streets are all fifty feet wide; the drainage and water service are of the highest character. All improvements are at the expense of the company. A handsome park has been laid out, and there is a fine fresh water lake near by. The town site is traversed by one of the finest automobile roads in the world, connecting directly by the new $200,000 Boulevard with Atlantic City.

Read What Investors Say.

Mayor Franklin P. Stoy, Atlantic City, Says:

Several months ago I purchased from the Atlantic City Estate Company several lots at Pleasantville Terrace, which to my satisfaction have been a good and substantial investment.

Since success has been fully assured in this lovely suburb, I have purchased a small block in the Pinehurst tract, which is operated by the same company, and which bids fair to equal in value all of the suburban building locations near the large cities.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) F. P. STOY,
Mayor of Atlantic City, N. J.
January 9, 1906.

Two Hotels Going Up at Pinehurst

As a hotel man I am naturally interested in real estate, and when my attention was called to the property of the Atlantic City Estate Company known as Pinehurst, I was convinced that the rapid growth of Atlantic City and the high price of real estate there was destined to make lots at Pinehurst a very desirable investment. Upon further examination, I purchased two entire blocks at Pinehurst, and will erect a hotel there soon.

I feel that I am fortunate in securing such a desirable location at Pinehurst, as I find that Atlantic City people are daily becoming more alive to the fact that this property has a great future.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) WM. J. STORCK,
January 6, 1906. Atlantic City, N. J.

I have bought one whole block of ground in Pinehurst. I have been on the ground, and I was so impressed with the location that I gave orders at once to fell trees and prepare for building a hotel at the earliest possible opportunity. It is most convenient to that world-famous Atlantic City. I will cheerfully answer all letters in reference to Pinehurst.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) MRS. LOUISA TAYLOR,
January 4, 1906. Atlantic City, N. J.

TROLLEY BUILDING

Not only is the Pennsylvania Railroad spending large sums to electrify (by third rail system) its suburban service around Atlantic City, but the Reading Railroad has also announced the expenditure of five million dollars for the same purpose in the near future. The bonds have been recently issued for the completion of the through trolley line between Camden and Atlantic City. The advent of the trolley at Pinehurst within a short time is certain to result in another jump of prices and to mean a rapid increase of building and population.

PINEHURST DEVELOPMENT

New Suburb is Proving Popular Place of Investment for Many People.

Pinehurst property is being sold rapidly to investors and people who want residential sites in the new suburb of Atlantic City. The Pinehurst tract is only seven minutes from Atlantic City, by Pennsylvania railroad, and its values are steadily increasing. A liberal plan of development gives equal advantages to all purchasers, and just at this time, and for a limited period only, special prices are being quoted on the lots which are yet unsold.

During the past few months, there have been a large number of properties sold. The properties have been sold under restrictions, which will make it one of the most desirable residential suburbs in Atlantic County. In a very short time the completion of the trolley road system will add to the value of the property holdings in this new suburb.

Atlantic City Review—May 10, 1906.

Mr. W. F. Townsend, Mgr. of the Atlantic City Review, bought 42 lots.

A sample of the kind of houses now going up on the company's adjoining operation, Pleasantville Terrace, showing the high character of improvement contemplated at Pinehurst.
